SOUL Food

Skills, Opportunity, Upliftment, and Learning for Migrant Women through Food

THE ATHENS MULTIPLIER EVENT

July 9, 2026, 18:00h-20:00h

The SOUL Food Workshop

The SOUL Food Project shows how learning about Culinary Arts and Cultural Exchange is an effective way to empower migrants and especially the migrant women in the European societies. During the SOUL Food Workshop, the main Project Results will be reviewed and validated, to become available for deployment by the interested stakeholders.

The Workshop is addressed to the Migrant & Refugee Agencies and participants will be presented with the project outcomes, to deliver quality services to migrants & refugees and the migrant women.

- 18:00-18:15 Welcome session: getting the scope of the Workshop
- 18:15-18:50 The "Handbook for Educators", supporting trainers and tutors/educators to facilitate digital and blended learning processes with migrant women and migrants at large

Εγχειρίδιο Εκπαιδευτών (για φορείς μεταναστών-προσφύγων): οργάνωση και πληροφόρηση και καλλιέργεια επαγγελματικών δεξιοτήτων (Μαγειρική Τέχνη & Πολιτισμοί)

- 19:00-19:35 The Digital Tools & Guidelines for Practitioners, interactive resources for migrant & refugee workers to adopt and adapt the SOUL Food approach and training materials to varying learning contexts

Ψηφιακά εργαλεία και Οδηγίες προς εργαζόμενους με πρόσφυγες και μετανάστες για να αξιοποιήσουν τα αποτελέσματα του Έργου "SOUL Food", σε διαφορετικά περιβάλλοντα (ανάγκες μεταναστών-προσφύγων)

Your participation will provide you with an insight of the understanding in different European cultural backgrounds and will help assessing the relevance, validity and transferability of these resources.

Η συμμετοχή σας θα βοηθήσει στην απόκτηση της εικόνας των προβλημάτων των προσφύγων-μεταναστών και των "κοινών" λύσεων σε Ευρωπαϊκό επίπεδο, μέσω πολυπολιτισμικής εκπαίδευσης.
